Citizenship Focus is held in Raleigh and allows teens to learn about state government and interact with state elected leaders. During this conference, participants will be engaged in workshops on leadership and citizenship topics that prepare them for a visit to the Legislative office buildings where they have the opportunity to meet and talk with their state representatives and senators. Transportation, lodging and meals provided.

Workforce Readiness - Soft Skills Extreme Makeover

Dates: June 15-16th Time: 9AM-3PM Ages: 14-18 Cost: $20 Location: Carthage, NC

This two-day workshop will focus on creating experiences and further developing those unspoken skills needed to enter the workforce to be successful. If you wish to participate in the Moore County Government Leadership Academy, this session is a prerequisite. Bring a bagged lunch both days. Snacks provided.

Livestock Camp

Dates: June 19-23rd Time: 9AM-4PM Ages: 12-18 Cost: $40 Location: Carthage, NC

This camp is for youth interested in learning the basics of livestock husbandry. Over the course of the week you will learn about several areas of livestock care including nutrition, health care and industry related topics for cattle, horses, sheep, goats, pigs and poultry. There will be several farm visits allowing you to participate in a variety of hands-on activities, as well as visit the NC State Vet School and livestock educational units in Raleigh. Participants do not need to own livestock to participate in this week-long camp. Bring a bagged lunch each day. Snacks will be provided.

Farm to Kitchen

Dates: June 27-30th Time: 9AM-4PM Ages: 9-18 Cost: $50 Location: Carthage, NC

Do you know where your food comes from? Do you like to cook and prepare meals? Come learn about where food comes from, how to properly prepare meals and learn about the important nutrients your body needs to grow. Participants will tour local livestock and produce farms to learn how their food is produced. On the last day of camp, participants will participate in a Food Challenge Competition to see which team can prepare the best dish! Qualifying teams will be eligible to attend an Area Competition August 4th! Bring a bagged lunch each day. Snacks will be provided.
